ITCHING LIMBS
For Three Years. Nights Itching and Burning Terrible.
Wife Suggests CUTICURA. Uses It. Presto! What a Change.
NOW PERMANENTLY CURED.

The itching and burning I suffered in my feet and limbs for three years were terrible. At night they were worse, and would keep me awake a greater part of the night. I consulted doctor after doctor. None knew what the trouble was. I concluded I would have to go to a Cincinnati hospital before I would get relief. My wife finally prevailed upon me to try CUTICURA remedies. Presto! What a change. I am now cured, and it is a permanent cure. I feel like kicking some doctor or myself for suffering three years. Sept. 11, 1898. H. JENKINS, Middleboro, Ky.

THE STATE SOLONS.

What the Indiana Legislature is Doing.

The Roby Gamblers Gain a Small Point.

A Drastic Anti-Trust Measure is Prepared.

County and Township Reform Measure is Having a Hard Time—Character of the Opposition.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 20.—Representative Knotts, of Lake, made a gallant fight yesterday in the house in the interests of Roby, and incidentally won a scratch victory. Barlow's bill, giving the state the right to enjoin against pulic nuisances without giving bond, was up for the third reading. It is a very drastic measure, as conceded by its friends, and is intended not only as a blow at Roby and its kindred horse racing features, but also against the oil and gas interests who are treating state statutes with business-like contempt. When the bill was presented Mr. Knotts made a minority report, which was tabled, and yesterday he resubmitted his objections, which were based on broad grounds. The bill was a long step toward government by injunction, he claimed, and if Roby is a nuisance the speaker contended that it could be suppressed by special enactment.

The bill was championed and opposed, irrespective of political affiliation, Mr. Knotts stubbornly fighting every inch, and finally a vote was ordered, showing forty-five affirmative and forty-six in the negative. The bill failed of passage, but an error was claimed, and friends of the measure gave notice that another vote would be asked.

THE ANTI TRUST BILL.

The house has unanimously engrossed a bill amending the anti-trust law of two years ago, by which ample power is given to the attorney general to proceed against trusts operating in this state. The amendment covers every possible feature of combination, and the attorneys to whom it has been submitted confirm the belief that it will be found answering all purposes.

The anti-trust bill of two years ago, known as the Linck bill, was regarded as defective at the time of its passage, and it was said that it was only run through to satisfy popular clamor.

Johnson's anti-trust bill, pending in the senate, is an exceedingly drastic measure. It is intended that it shall apply to straw-board companies, the glass combine, the tin plate companies and all companies entering into a combination to fix prices.

FOUGHT BY BRIDGE PEOPLE.

A second measure in the house over which there was much discussion, was the bill authorizing the board of county commissioners to have on file specifications for contracts to be let by the county. The bridge interests fought this proposition, which was renewed during the afternoon, finally resulting in the bill being passed by a vote of 65 to 4. Several other bills were also passed, the only one of general interest providing for the discharge of convicts from the penal and reformatory institutions, furnishing them with suitable clothing and giving them transportation to their homes.

REFORM LEGISLATION.

There is already much gossiping over an alleged combination to prevent any so-called reform legislation on county and township affairs, as framed by Chairman Hernly's pet commission. The opposition first manifested itself when the bill creating a township council and restricting the powers of township trustees was reported by a committee. This bill received a black eye in the discussion, and to prevent its defeat the friends of the measure succeeded in making it the special order for today.

EAGAN'S SUCCESSOR.

Colonel Weston to be Commissary General of Subsistence Department.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says:

Whatever may be the outcome of the Eagan court martial, it may be confidently stated that Eagan's career as commissary general of the army is ended.

His successor, Col. John F. Weston, has already been selected. Orders have been telegraphed him at New York directing him to report for duty at once to the secretary of war.

Alfred Hattersley, jr., has purchased the property at the northwest corner of Berry and Lafayette streets and will build upon it in the spring. The sale was effected through the Murray Hartnett agency and the price paid was $6,500. The property belonged to James Kingan, of New York, and is a fine building site. Mr. Hattersley will erect two double houses for residence purposes.

There is some misunderstanding of the working of the police pension bill. A police officer cannot go on the pension list unless he is past fifty years of age and has served fifteen years in the department. An officer who was appointed at the age of twenty-two would be compelled to serve twenty-eight years and an officer who was appointed at the age of forty-five could not go on the pension list until he was sixty.

THE PATH OF DUTY.

Rev. Dr. Clark Discusses Policy of Expansion.

President of Christian Endeavor Organization Says Right Must Point the Way.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 20.—President F. E. Clark, D. D., of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, has undertaken to set before endeavorers certain principles to be considered in determining the attitude of the members of the society as to imperialism or national expansion. President Clark says:

"The great questions involved are not whether expansion will increase our exports or imports, not whether it will involve a great standing army and a vast navy, not whether it will increase our national prestige and importance, not whether it will involve a strict or a liberal interpretation of the constitution, not whether it will involve the shelving of the Monroe doctrine, but whether or not imperialism will enable America to better perform its mission among the great nations of the world as a civilizing, up lifting and Christianizing force."

In enlarging upon the matter, President Clark, continuing, said:

"We cannot if we would, place ourselves back where we were a year ago. The boom of Dewey's guns in Manila and of Sampson's at Santiago will never cease to echo. We owe a peculiar duty to at least 12,000,000 of people who a year ago were not under our particular sphere of influence.

"Can we most quickly elevate these people and bring them into the front ranks of the civilized Christian races by annexing them, or by converting their lands into colonies, or can it best be done by fostering and protecting them for a a little while until they are able to go alone as free and independent states?

"That, it seems to me, is the great question of the day, so far as these nations are concerned.

"If this question is not settled as God would have it settled, it will be a sorry day for America. If it is settled right, it will not only bring untold blessings to these people of the West Indies and the south seas, but it will bring the dawn of a new era to the world, for it will show a strong nation can interfere with the affairs of another nation even to the point of war, not for its own aggrandizement, but for the elevation and advancement of a weak and down-trodden people.

"If this, America's avowed purpose, proves to be her real purpose, it will be a prouder thing than ever to be called an American.

"If it should prove that we have gone to war and are exploiting these people simply for our own commercial advantage with little thought of their interests or advancement, we should become, as we would deserve to become, a hissing and byword among the nations."

VERY QUEER REPORT

Bishop Rademacher Said to be in St. Louis.

Story Sent Out to a Cincinnati Newspaper.

Its Truth Positively Denied at Episcopal House.

Archbishop Elder, of Cincinnati, Visits the Bishop at the Hospital Today—Reported to be Better.

"ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 19.—Rt. Rev. Bishop Rademacher, of the Catholic diocese of Fort Wayne, Ind., arrived in St. Louis tonight, in company with one of his priests, and was placed in the Alexian Brothers' hospital, on South Jefferson avenue. The bishop is suffering from mental trouble, due, it is said, to worry over considerable property, most of it belonging to the church, which has been under his charge. His mind has been failing for some time, and his friends advised him to seek rest and medical treatment. The director of the hospital said the physicians hoped that in a few months his condition would be greatly improved. Fear of entanglement involving the management and disposition of the diocesan affairs and property made it necessary that the bishop relinquish his charge. It was not known who had been placed in charge of the diocese."

ARCHBISHOP ELDER.

STORY POSITIVELY DENIED

Inquiry at the episcopal residence elicited the statement from Vicar General Guendling that Bishop Rademacher is not in the Alexian Brothers' hospital in St. Louis, but that he is still in the St. Joseph hospital in this city.

Dr. J. M Dinnen stated to THE SENTINEL late this afternoon that Bishop Rademacher is not only not in St. Louis, but that there has been no talk of taking him to that city.

Dr. Dinnen further asserted that he was with Bishop Rademacher fully an hour at the St. Joseph hospital this morning.

How the St. Louis dispatch could have originated is a mystery.

ARCHBISHOP ELDER HERE.

Archbishop William H. Elder, of Cincinnati, and Rt. Rev. Bishop Maes, of Covington, Ky., arrived in the city last night for the purpose of calling upon Bishop Rademacher, who has been so seriously ill for the past week. They spent the night at the episcopal residence and at an early hour conducted mass in the Cathedral. Immediately after the religious services the visitors, accompanied by Vicar General Guendling, went to St. Joseph's hospital to see the sick bishop.

Vicar General Guendling says that they found the sick prelate partaking of a hearty breakfast after having spent a very comfortable night. The visitors were warmly greeted by the bishop who seemed greatly pleased by their call. "The bishop talked cheerfully and we think he is on the high road to recovery," said Father Guendling. When asked if the bishop's mental trouble had passed away he said: "There was no evidence whatever of mental aberration this morning and his mind was as clear as a bell."

When asked if there was any significance in the visit of Archbishop Elder so far as the rumored change in the administration of diocesan affairs was concerned, he said:

"None whatever; the archbishop wanted to call on Bishop Rademacher and also on Bishop Chatard, of Indianapolis, who is sick. His call was that of affectionate interest in the bishop's welfare and nothing else whatsoever. Bishop Maes came because he has been a close friend of Bishop Rademacher and also of Bishop Chatard. They both had a pleasant talk with the sick man this morning and that is all there is to it."

Archbishop Elder and Bishop Maes left at 12:25 over the Grand Rapids for Indianapolis, via Winchester. Before leaving the archbishop endorsed the order to have litany offered in all of the Catholic churches in the diocese for the recovery of Bishop Rademacher. Consequently services will be held at 7 o'clock each evening.

As to the likelihood of the ecclesiastics being here to appoint somebody to administer the affairs of the diocese until the recovery of the bishop, or until it would be ascertained that he would be permanently incapacitated for duty, it was learned at the episcopal residence that such rumors were mere creations of imagination, as all affairs of the diocese are looked after by the vicar general in the absence of the bishop from home or in case of his sickness. By virtue of the office he holds, the vicar general is the ruler, in fact, during either illness, absence or death of his superior until a board of advisors of the diocese shall meet and recommend some action in such contingencies. Even if there was a possibility that Bishop Rademacher will be incapacitated for a resumption of his duties, as has been stated in an Indianapolis paper, the presence of Archbishop Elder could not, according to Vicar General Guendling, have any bearing in the case. But the entire clergy expresses itself as firmly convinced that Bishop Rademacher will soon be able to resume his duties.

HE IS NOT DEAD.

Johnny Comes Marching Home and Creates Surprise.

A Dead Body Had Been Identified as John Cochran and Buried, But the Man is Still Alive.

A few days ago THE SENTINEL told of the body of a man who had been killed at Marengo, Ind. He was a stranger and the description furnished the Fort Wayne officers led them to believe that the man was John Cochran, known throughout the city as "Johnny Appleseed." A picture of Cochran was sent to W. C. Stewart and this morning Superintendent Gorsline received a letter saying that the man buried was Cochran.

But Mr. Stewart is mistaken. Yesterday afternoon John Cochran walked into the Fort Wayne police station and asked for a knife which had been taken from him on one of the occasions that he had been locked up. The police were, of course, surprised to see him alive, and there was amazement when the letter from Mr. Stewart was received. "Johnny Appleseed," however, insists with positiveness which no honest person can doubt that he is still alive.

LOCAL LINES.

City Bacteriologist Drayer made 1,298 examinations during the year 1898, an average of about four a day. The largest number made were of sputum, milk, water and diphtheria.

Miss Josephine Herber and Miss Celia Smith won the first prize at the cake walk given by Mr. Hartman, of Hanna street, last night. The affair was hugely enjoyed by everyone present.

Roman Zoellers has purchased through the agency of Sidney C. Lumbard & Son lot No. 275, Hamilton's fourth addition. The consideration was $2,000. The lot is situated on East DeWald street.

Rev. Dr. Parr, of Wayne street M. E. church, will preach this evening at the revival service at Trinity M. E church. This series of meetings is resulting in great good, and a specially interesting service is anticipated for this evening.

Mrs. Alice Howey entertained four tables at progressive pedro last evening in a most charming manner, in compliment to Mrs. W. S. Bash, of New York City, and Mrs. Will Morris, of Richmond, Va. Mrs. Morris and Edward White won the prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCulloch and Miss Edith Zollars left last evening for Jackson sanitarium, Dansville, N. Y., where Mrs. McCulloch will remain indefinitely in hopes of recuperating her health. Miss Zollars will stay with her mother, but Mr. McCulloch will return in a few days.

Harry J. Voirol, the son of F. J. Voirol, the well known jeweler, had a delightful birthday celebration at his home, a large number of his boy friends being present. Harry was sixteen years old yesterday. The evening was spent in pedro and other games and music enlivened the occasion. The first pedro prize was won by James Murphy. The prize was a pair of gold cuff buttons. George Sosenheimer got the booby. A sumptuous supper was served and in the course of the feast Johnny Belger arose, and in behalf of his comrades, presented the young host with a beautiful rosewood mandolin.

MAKES AN ENQUIRY.

Resolution by Senatory Caffery Goes Over.

Wants to Know What Documents the State Department Has Received From Aguinaldo's Agents.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—President Pro Tem Frye, who has been ill for several days, presided over the senate at the opening of its session today.

A message from the president vetoing the bill for the relief of Albert Rodstone was read.

Mr. Caffery, of Louisana, offered the following concurrent resolution:

"That the president be and is hereby requested, if not incompatible with the public interests, to furnish to the senate copies of any communications received by the state department from any representatives or agents of the so-called Philippine republic; and also to furnish any information in his possession, or any document filed before the state department, relative to the bounds of the territories in the Philippine Islands, together with the number of inhabitants therein, held respectively under the control of the American forces and the authority of the so-called Philippine republic, showing particularly what islands or parts of islands, if any, can in any event be delivered by Spain to the United States."

The resolution went over under objection.

Mr. Nelson, of Minnesota, was then recognized to make a speech upon the Vest anti-expansion resolution. His address was a constitutional argument in support of the right of the United States government to acquire and govern foreign territory.

He maintained that it was no longer an unsettled question that this country had the power not only to acquire foreign territory by discovery, conquest or treaty, but also to govern territory so acquired. That question, he said, had been settled by a decision of the supreme court and was scarcely longer open to debate.

He maintained that the United States had inherent power to acquire territory—a power as full and comprehensive as that possessed by any other nation.

THE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—When the house met today the pending question was on the motion of Mr. Swanson to recommend the post-office appropriation bill, with instructions to strike from the paragraph appropriating $300,000 for mail facilities in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippine islands the words "newly acquired territory."

The democrats opposed this language. To avoid a roll call which had been ordered Mr. Loud in charge of the bill, asked unanimous consent that the words be stricken out as they were unnecessary. There was no objection and the bill was passed.

HIS STAY WAS BRIEF

Gonzales de Quesada Was in the City This Morning.

He is President of the Cuban Junta in America.

Only a Few Knew That It Was the Distinguished Man.

Mr. Quesada Talked for a Few Moments With a Sentinel Reporter—En Route to Ionia, Mich.

With reserved dignity and a desire to refrain from public notice a man whose appearance betokened foreign birth, stepped up to the Wayne hotel register this morning and signed his name. He was of medium height, slim in physique and of a sallow complexion, with black penetrating eyes, so common in the clime of the tropics.

The man who signed his name was Senor Gonzales de Quesada, but very few of those who were stirring at that early hour were conscious that the stranger was none other than the president of the Cuban junta in America, the man who throughout the war took so important a part in administering to the affairs of his people.

Senor Quesada took breakfast,

after which he was seen by a SENTINEL reporter, who had been informed of his coming. The Cuban representative was not inclined to talk, as he was tired from his long ride from Washington, D. C., and his time was limited, as he had to leave on the early Grand Rapids train for the north. Senor Quesada told the reporter that he arrived on the Pennsylvania limited this morning and was going to Ionia, Mich., where he would speak tonight, this being his first public utterance since the close of the war. He merely stopped here to change trains and he naturally sought a hotel for breakfast.

He evaded all questions concerning the present status of affairs in Cuba, excusing himself by saying that "time is too short for a discussion of such matters." Before the reporter could get any more from him the president of the Cuban junta started for the carriage which was to take him to his train and with an "adios," Senor Quesada hurried away, his long raven locks flying in the breeze as he entered his carriage.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

Some Objections to Asphalt on East Lewis Street—Plans Ordered for Wayne—Notes.

The board of works last evening devoted most of the session to the discussion of new pavements which are to be laid this summer. It was finally determined that East Wayne street, from Calhoun to Clinton, should be paved and the engineer was ordered to draw plans for the improvement. The board is awaiting the pleasure of property owners and will probably decide this afternoon or tomorrow whether the pavement shall be asphalt or block.

John H. Brennan was present and objected to an asphalt pavement on East Lewis street. He contended that inasmuch as the street railway had placed brick between its tracks, that it would not be advisable to put down asphalt on the outside. The board is of the same opinion, but having gone on record in favor of allowing the property owners to name the pavement they preferred, the board will draw up a resolution for asphalt if the majority of the owners insist that is what they desire. The matter may not be settled for two or three weeks.

The question of paving East Berry street, from Calhoun to Clinton, was discussed informally. Two petitions, one asking for sheet asphalt and the other for block asphalt, are circulating among the property owners, and will be presented next week.

Charles Buck and ten others presented a remonstrance against the proposed paving of Holman street with asphalt. It was received and filed.

K. J. Bauer remonstrated against the construction of a sewer in the alley between Spring and Fourth streets.

The bond of William M. Miller, licensed sewer builder, was approved.

HEALTH RECORD.

The annual report of the board of health shows that there were 626 deaths in the city during 1898, and only 561 births. The discrepancy results from the failure of physicians and midwives to report natal statistics to the authorities, as provided by law. Of the births, 279 were male and 282 females.

There were 19 deaths from cerebro spinal fever, 20 from diphtheria, 10 from typhoid fever, 27 from cancer, 21 from convulsions, 38 from paralysis, 30 from heart disease, 22 from violence, 23 from old age, and 73 from consumption. The highest from any other cause was from nephritis, which claimed 36 victims.

THE DEATHS.

Thomas McMahon, formerly a resident of Fort Wayne, who for several years had been an inmate of the Eastern Hospital for Insane, died at that institution yesterday. The information was received by John Brennen, administrator of Mr. McMahon's estate. The deceased was for many years an eccentric character but it was not until a few years ago that he was unable to properly look after his extensive interests. His property interests were at Fort Wayne, Dixon, Convoy and Van Wert and his estate is valued at $20,000. Prior to his removal to the insane hospital Mr. McMahon lived at Dixon but he spent the greater part of his time in this city, stopping at the various hotels. The remains will be brought here for interment.

GRANNEMANN.

The funeral of Mrs. Charles Grannemann will be held from the residence at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and at 2 o'clock from the Emanuel Lutheran church.

DENNIS.

George M., the six months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dennis, of No. 153 Putnam street, died Thursday night, of exhaustion. The funeral will be held at 9 o'clock Saturday morning from the Church of the Precious Blood, the Rev. Francis Nigsch, C. PP. S. officiating. Interment in the Catholic cemetery.

WEISBROD.

Mrs. N. Heiny, of this city, has received word of the death of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Weisbrod, which occurred at Huntington yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Mrs Weisbrod's death was caused by the ravages of old age, she having passed the eighty-fourth mile-stone in life's journey. The remains will be interred at Vera Cruz, Ind., Sunday afternoon.

ARGUMENTS ON.

Evidence All Heard in the Coudrey-Neff Will Contest—Notes.

The evidence in the Coudrey-Neff will contest was all in at 12 o'clock today and arguments were commenced this afternoon, Mr. Tannyhill first addressing the jury. The lawyers are allowed six hours for arguments.

Judge Dawson and a jury are this afternoon listening to the arguments in the horse case of Weber vs. Gorham.

NOTES.

Judge O'Rourke granted Maribel Rager a divorce from Francis E. Rager, and the plaintiff was allowed to resume her maiden name, Maribel Friend.

The will of the late Charles Doenze was filed for probate. Paulina Denzler is named as executrix and is bequeathed $800.

Mary Johnson has applied for a divorce from Royal Johnson. The plaintiff alleges failure to provide and cruelty.

Henry Truckenbeck and Charles Himmelsberger were taken to the Jeffersonville reformatory this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Snyder and Marshal Grabner, of New Haven.

The Kinerk ditch in Pleasant township and the Johnson ditch in Maumee, were established by the county commissioners this afternoon.

Two councilmen from Elwood, Ind., were in the city today to look at the city building. Elwood citizens are advocating the erection of a new building and the councilmen are searching for the best and most commodious city hall.

TURN MATAAFA OUT

His Election Annulled by Chief Justice Chambers.

The Late Malietoa's Son Declared the King.

A British Warship Lands a Party of Blue Jackets Which Has a Good Effect on Affairs at Samoa.

HAMBURG, Jan. 20.—According to news received here from Samoa, Chief Justice Chambers, on December 31st, annulled the election of Mataafa, who was returned by a sextuple majority, and declared Malietoa Tanus, the son of the late King Malietoa, who is still a minor, to be king.

The three consuls recognized Mataafa's people as a provisional government. Malietoa Tanus Tamasese, another claimant for the throne, and Chief Justice Chambers, it is added, went on board a British warship, whereupon the provisional government closed the chief court. The British warship then landed a detachment of bluejackets and later the court was reopened, under the protests of the provisional government.

HELLO THERE.

Something Up in Fort Wayne Telephone Circles.

Capitalists Arrive From Washington, D. C., and Are in Consultation With Central Union Manager.

This afternoon four capitalists of Washington, D. C., arrived in the city on very important business, the exact nature of which is not known.

The gentlemen are J. M. Wilson, A. S. Worthington, A. A. Birney and John W. Sulse. They registered at the New Aveline and then went to the office of E. L. Taylor, manager of the Central Union Telephone company.

Mr. Taylor was seen by a reporter, but he said that he was not able to tell anything about the men or their visit, as he had not been apprised of their coming. He had not yet talked with them.

The visitors are thought to belong to the American Bell Telephone company, which leases its instruments to the Central Union, and their visit is supposed to relate to some very important business transaction which will be made public later. A SENTINEL reporter made an effort to get an interview with the strangers, but failed.

It is easy enough to talk of dropping Mr. Quay, but there is too much ready to go down with him.

The German consul in the Samoan islands is now prepared to depose learnedly upon that peculiarly American process known technically as being "fired bodily."

The president has anticipated possible action of the Eagan court martial by hunting up a new officer to succeed the wild headed commissary general of subsistence. There's a deal of satisfaction in that.

A lot of good talkers have been inducted into good public jobs all in a bunch. Joseph Choate is now ambassador to England, and Albert J. Beveridge and Chauncey M. Depew go to the senate of the United States. There is no limit to the speech-making in both places.

MUNYON'S GUARANTEE.

Strong Assertions as to Just What the Remedies Will Do.

Munyon guarantees that his Rheumatism Cure will cure nearly all cases of rheumatism in a few hours; that his Dyspepsia Cure will cure indigestion and all stomach troubles; that his Kidney Cure will cure 90 per cent. of all cases of kidney trouble; that his Catarrh Cure will cure catarrh no matter how long standing; that his Headache Cure will cure any kind of headache in a few minutes; that his Cold Cure will quickly break up any form of cold and so on through the entire list of remedies. At all druggists, 25 cents a vial.

If you need medical advice write Prof. Munyon, 1505 Arch st., Phila. It is absolutely free.

Charles Dudley Warner said in a speech in New York the other day that the indeterminate sentence for criminals is not really practiced anywhere but it ought to be, and that prisons should really be hospitals for the treatment of crime where the inmates are held until educated and cured.

Thirty bones and some ashes were all that were found of the supposed remains of Christopher Columbus when the casket recently shipped from Havana was opened at Cadiz. The story is leaking out even in Spain, however, that the pieces are not those of the great discoverer, and any one of them is likely to prove big enough for a bone of contention.

John Day, the Irish agitator, who was convicted in 1884 of treason and felony against the English government, sentenced to penal servitude for life and released from Portland prison in 1895 because of failing health, will probably be elected mayor of Dublin under the new Irish local government act, unless declared to be disqualified. His supporters have already captured twenty-four out of the forty seats comprised in the new Limerick corporation. Daly was twice elected a member of parliament while in prison. He was not included in the pardon granted by the last liberal government to Irish political prisoners, and there is some question as to whether he can hold the position of mayor of Dublin.

At the home of Mrs. F. F. Fee last evening Mrs. Francis M. Baxter gave an interesting lecture on the Fontainbleau group in which she gave historical sketches of artists and mentioned most eventful things in their work. There was a large attendance and the meeting was thoroughly enjoyed. Light refreshments were served after the lecture.

NOT THIS WINTER.

No More Work on the Court House Until Spring.

Commissioners and Contractor Stewart Have Reached an Agreement—There Was No Heat.

The county commissioners yesterday afternoon decided that no more work would be done on the court house until the weather had settled. Sanders N. Taylor, a prominent St. Louis attorney, came to Fort Wayne yesterday and with H. C. Hanna, local representative of the firm, held a conference with the commissioners, County Attorney Barrett and Architect Tolan. There was a dispute as to who should furnish the heating, the contractors contending that Messrs. Battersby, who have the plumbing and heating contract, should bear the expense. Attorney Taylor made two propositions to the board, one that the Stewarts would continue to push the work provided that the Battersbys would place the heating apparatus now, the Stewarts agreeing to furnish coal and a man to handle it, the plumbers to employ a man to take care of the apparatus. The other proposition, which Mr. Taylor believed was best for the county, was that work should be stopped until the weather had settled. It was shown that at least thirty days would be required to put in the heating apparatus and this would mean that only thirty days would be gained. The matter was discussed thoroughly and it was agreed that the work should stop until the weather would be settled, which means no more work on the court house until April. The roofs were not completed and the contractors have placed felt paper over the tower to prevent water from getting through to the floors. The contractors have also agreed to place the very best muslin or canvas in the windows to protect the interior until work is resumed.

REVIVAL SERVICES.

Another Great Meeting at the Baptist Tabernacle Last Night.

The meetings at the Baptist Tabernacle continue to grow in interest and power. The congregations are very large, indeed. The meeting last night was the best yet, in that more were converted than on any previous night. In the past three nights two have been received by letter, four have been received for baptism and eighteen others have made a profession of faith. The meetings still continue.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c. The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet.

Among the guests at the Wayne: A. W. Watkins, George W. Burbridge, Grand Rapids; H. W. Kellogg, Battle Creek; J. B. Howard, Columbus, Ohio; H. S. Hunter, Indianapolis; J. H. Enyeart, Denver.

At the rooms of the Universal Brotherhood last evening about thirty newsboys were highly entertained by the Lotus Group. A magic lantern, handled by Miss Elsie Jackson, gave the guests a fine series of views of the world's fair, Colorado and places nearer home. Recitations and music completed the very delightful program.

GRIP EPIDEMIC.

The Situation Little Changed at the Pittsburg.

Orders for 6,000 New Freight Cars Were Placed Yesterday--Shop and Rail.

Master Mechanic B. Fitzpatrick, of the Pittsburg, who has been ill with the grip three weeks, took a short walk outdoors yesterday for the first time since he was taken with the malady. He expected to go to his office today, but unpleasant weather induced him to put the visit off a day or two. The grip is now paying attention to the heads of some of the departments in the shops. Foreman George A. Szink, of the blacksmith shop, and Assistant Foreman H. M. Dahl of the machine shop, are confined at home with it. Foreman P. J. Scheid of the round house, is also a victim, though so far he has been able to perform the duties of his office. Theodore Doebler, Mr. Scheid's clerk, this morning had symptoms of grip, but may be able to ward off an attack. The situation among the enginemen is little changed. The sick engineers are all recovering and only two new names were added to the list of sick firemen. To offset these, two men who had been sick reported for duty. Michael Gans, Charles Dunn, W. Y. Cherry and F. H. Shafer are new names on the sick list at the shops. John Sanders, a painter, and Louis Gronau, a machine operator, who had been sick, reported for work this morning.

Big Deal in Freight Cars.

Orders for 6,000 new freight cars were given yesterday. The Baltimore and Ohio was the chief purchaser, ordering 5,000 steel freight cars. The Denver and Rio Grande placed the order for the additional 1,000 cars. It also made a contract for standard gauging the road from La Veta, Colo., to Alamo, by which change southwestern Colorado will be brought five or six hours nearer to Denver, Pueblo and eastern points.

The Vanderbilts After the Wabash.

Out of Toledo comes a story to the effect that "several of the most prominent railroad and financial men of Chicago and New York say they have learned that the controlling interest in the Wabash system within the last week passed into the hands of the Vanderbilts." Some large blocks of this road's stock, it is stated, have been transferred recently, and those who claim to know assert that the sales have been made to the Vanderbilt family. It has been an open secret for some time that the eastern magnates have had their eyes on the Wabash system, which within the last few years has shown good money-making ability. If the Vanderbilts really have control of it, the addition to the trackage already controlled by them will make a system greater than any other in the United States. It will not only give them another road between Buffalo and Chicago but will give them entrance to the great southwest. This entrance into the southwest, it has frequently been stated of late, has long been desired by the Vanderbilt interests.

Detailed Report of Kelker's Run.

The following is a detailed account of the fast run made by Engineer Samuel Kelker between this city and Chicago last Wednesday:

Distance, 148.3 miles,

Elapsed time, two hours and thirty-five minutes.

Average speed, 57.8 miles per hour.

Delays, 11½ minutes.

Actual running time, 142½ minutes.

Average speed, 60.24 miles per hour.

Plymouth to Colehour, 69.3 miles, 60 minutes, 69.8 miles per hour.

Fort Wayne Junction to Colehour, 132.5 miles, 125 minutes, 63.6 miles per hour.

A New Coal Road.

The stockholders of the American Tin Plate company at Elwood will, with the opening of spring, begin the construction of the Elwood, Anderson and Brazil railroad. The new road will parallel the Panhandle from Elwood to Anderson and will parallel the Chicago and Southeastern from Anderson to the coal fields. The purpose of the road is to secure entrance into the Indiana coal field in Clay and adjoining counties, so as to be able to supply manufacturers at Anderson and Elwood with coal.

Personal and General.

Bridge Superintendent W. S. Danes, of Peru, was in the city last night.

The Nickel Plate and the Grand Rapids employes received their pay today.

The Electric corporation sent a 1,500 light dynamo to St. Bernard, Ohio, this morning.

C. B. Slagle, draughtsman at the Bass works, was in Chicago yesterday on business for the company.

James Leedy, roadmaster of the southern division of the Grand Rapids road, was in the city today.

The new agreement of the Western Passenger association contains a clause inflicting a fine upon the road that cuts rates.

Nickel Plate engine 26 is in service again after undergoing light repairs, and engine 15 is now in the shop for light repairs.

A car load of prisoners was carried yesterday from Jeffersonville to Michigan City, over the Pennsylvania and Monon lines.

Fireman W. Bates, of the Pennsylvania, fell in the east yards yesterday and suffered a contusion and sprain to the left hand.

Brakeman W. P. Morits, of the Nickel Plate, is sick. Brakeman G. W. Stevens, of the same road, has recovered from an illness.

Conductor and Mrs. C. W. Zeigler, of Bellevue, came here yesterday to attend the banquet of the Order of Railway Conductors.

The Terre Haute Car works are now employing 900 men. They have plenty of work on hand to keep them busy for two or three months.

The Pennsylvania, the Pittsburg and Lake Erie and the Pittsburg and Western will build a union station at New Castle, Pa., where the tracks of the three lines converge.

Philip Ronchler and William Seabold, of the electric works, are off duty, the former to attend a funeral and the latter on account of the grip.

The Chicago and Rock Island has commenced relaying its track between Belleville and Omaha with rails weighing eighty-five pounds to the yard.

The Santa Fe, in shortening the running time of its fast mail train between Chicago and Kansas City, proposes to cover the 485 miles in twenty hours.

Charles Kierspe, Wallie Conners and Henry Kopp, of the Bass machine shop, are off duty, the two former on account of the grip. Charlie Taylor and Henry Nyland, who have been sick, reported for work.

A meeting of great importance to railway managers is called to be held at Buffalo in March to formally organize an American Railway Maintenance of Way association.

The receipts for 1898 at this point for passenger and freight business on the Grand Rapids and Indiana road were over $17,000 in excess of the receipts during the preceding year.

Several Nickel Plate enginemen are taking a few days' lay off to rest up after working nearly day and night for several weeks. Among them are Engineers Al Becker, J. Archart and Joseph Brecht, and Firemen A. Hoffman, U. Allen and J. D. Moore.

Under the new rules all applicants for positions on the Pennsylvania lines are required to undergo a physical examination similar to that of men entering the United States military service.

Freight traffic officials of the trunk lines have under consideration the reduction of live stock rates from Missouri river points to eastern markets and a reduction of the rate on flour for export.

E. M. Newell, who has represented the Lake Shore road at St. Paul as northwestern freight agent, has resigned and goes to Pittsburg to represent the Chicago Great Western, succeeding J. F. McFarlane.

F. Sullivan, general roadmaster of the Lake Erie and Western's Indianapolis and Michigan City division, who has tendered his resignation, was appointed to the position forty years ago, when David Macy, deceased, was president of the road.

One of the Lake Shore's ten-wheel Brooks engines on Tuesday hauled the fast mail, consisting of seven cars, from Buffalo to Erie, ninety-five miles, in 112 minutes. This includes two full stops. For several continuous miles a speed of eighty-four miles an hour was attained.

It is officially announced that on March 1 the general passenger and freight departments of the Northern Steamship company will be consolidated. I. M. Bortle, general passenger agent, will retire, and Stewart Murray, now general freight agent, will become traffic manager of both departments.

The Big Four has been making extensive improvements at Cleveland in the way of yards for bulk tracks. It now has a large piece of ground graded, with eight tracks, which will hold 200 cars, with driveways between the tracks, making the best bulk yards owned by any road entering Cleveland.

It will be interesting news to many Fort Wayne people to read that Fred Thorp is now in Chicago. A letter to a friend conveys this information, but fails to state what work, if any, he is engaged at. Fred Thorp was for a number of years clerk in Chief Dispatcher Tigar's office. He also held a good social position and was prominently connected with several of Fort Wayne's fraternal orders.

Rev. P. J. Rice has sufficiently recovered to be about his usual duties and the evangelistic services will be resumed on Sunday. Beginning Monday evening Rev. C. S. Medbury will deliver a series of sermons at the West Jefferson street Church of Christ.

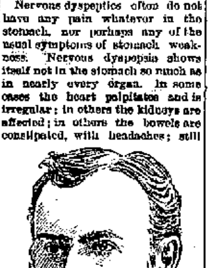
NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.

To Gain Flesh, to Sleep Well, to Know What Appetite and Good Digestion Mean;

Make a Test of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

No trouble is more common or more misunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think their nerves are to blame and are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicines. The real seat of the mischief is lost sight of. The stomach is the organ to be looked after.

Nervous dyspeptics often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly every organ. In some cases the heart palpitates and is irregular; in others the kidneys are affected; in others the bowels are constipated, with headaches; still others are troubled with loss of flesh and appetite with accumulations of gas, sour risings and heartburn.



PROF. HENRY W. BECKER, A. M.

It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any stomach weakness or disease except cancer of the stomach. They cure sour stomach, gas, loss of flesh and appetite, sleeplessness, palpitation, heartburn, constipation and headache.

Send for valuable little book on stomach diseases by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. All druggists sell full-sized packages at 50 cents. Prof. Henry W. Becker, A. M., the well known religious worker and writer of St. Louis.

Secretary of the Mission Board of the German Methodist church. Chief clerk and expert accountant for the harbor and wharf commission. Public secretary for the St. Louis School Patrons' association, and the District conference of stewards of the M. E. church; also takes an active part in the work of the Epworth league, and to write on religious and educational topics for several magazines. How he found relief is best told in his own words: "Some weeks ago my brother heard me say something about indigestion, and taking a box from his pocket said "Try Stuart's Tablets." I did, and was promptly relieved. Then I investigated the nature of the tablets and became satisfied that they were made of just the right things and in just the right proportions to aid in the assimilation of food. I heartily endorse them in all respects, and I keep them constantly on hand."

BICOLA PILLS

Prevent Waste, Fortify Body and Minds

Feed the Nerves; Make Flesh and Blood.

The Ideal Tonic For Men and Women

One of the best-known hotel proprietors in the United States is Mr. Henry W. Lawrence, proprietor of the Bates House and Spencer House, at Indianapolis, Indiana. When a man like Mr. Lawrence tells the people everywhere to take Bicola Pills, the great blood and nerve remedy to regain their health and strength; when he tells the weak, tired and nervous that this great remedy will make them strong and well, it means something coming from a man like Mr. Lawrence.

He writes that Bicola Pills gave him immediate relief from a severe attack of rheumatism and general nervousness, and he earnestly advises all sufferers from nervous and blood troubles to use Bicola Pills.

The Turners of Philadelphia make Bicola Pills.
